Hydro-Electric brain
Restoring a tragic conspiracy
The terror is dead-locked
Microcosm filled with anxiety

This crisis, obviously provoked
Was not a natural catastrophe
Originally a masterplan
To create a chemical dependency

Pharmaceutical cyborg
Paid to kill off poverty
It's senses are strong
That one of the dead, he will be

They gave him promises of open doors
And equal opportunities
He had no respect
So death in effect
A death he won't hear or see

This crisis, obviously provoked
Was not a natural catastrophe
Originally a masterplan
To create a chemical dependency

There are many magicians
In this high-tech palace
Millions of sparks
Fly from their minds

Ideas of wealth
Who will have the power?
The techno-brains
With secret designs

We are not alone
