Freeze in the winter snow
I die for things you don't wanna know
The speed of life equals pain
So fucking stupid I will do it again

I try to figure out the score
My days are numbered outside my door
So cooold baby do you care
A life without living but I'm still here

The invitation looks so good from where I stand

Reinstate me , cause I can't feel anything
But the pain is real a diabolic deal
It's messing up my head now would you believe
That I know who's waiting there,make sure that I do
care

7 days can't stay awake
Stuck inside a dream it's a bad mistake
So cooold baby do you care
A life without living but I'm still here

The invitation looks so good from where I stand
And the stuff I have is burning in my hand

Reinstate me , cause I can't feel anything
But the pain is real a diabolic deal
It's messing up my head now would you believe
That I know who's waiting there,make sure that I do
care

Let me introduce you to my friend
He deals with life until the end
Whenever I feel alone I grab the telephone
I'm far away I got a heart of stone
