In another land
Something takes my hand
And me away
It refused to fade

Spirit pulling me
Through my mind vacancy
I can feel presence
Getting stronger

Maybe it's illusion?
In complete confusion
I can't fight what's right
Any longer

The spirit is in me
Sub-conscious the key
Unlock the door to fear

Peril up ahead
Clairvoyance in red
The purpose is made clear

I am saved
By brainwaves
Trust your thoughts
They serve you better

The catastrophe
Happened without me
I was not caught
I am self-taught
