I cried out for peace on earth like a bitch in no mans land
With a killers gun Like a rolling thunder man it's a high speed son of a bitch
But I think it's fun
Watch out now here I come with a brand new super Plan Superman Hi Ho baby here we go thru the fire in no mans land God damn!

There's nothing else I rather do I'm sitting here I'm stuck with you

Ain't got a clue , nothing to do
One step away before I kill the truth
Nothing to do , ain't nothing to do
Ain't got a clue nothing to do

I'm just waiting for something to take me away Back to the killer swamp on the wheels of a psycho bike
On a crooked way God damn I'm authorized by the God of sonic love
But the damage is done
