May I rise, may I rise to speak to this game
Ashamed that I invited this devil
To rise to a living level, speakin' to the kind of Refined knowledge to define evil
I speak no evil, I hear no evil
I see no equal to this fellownated madness
Sad at this mess, sad at this mess, sad at this mess

Look around what do you see?
Can you see what I can see?
Hard to live without weed
Catching Hell without heed
Phenomenons phenomns and prodigys
Twenty thousand maniacs just gotta be Human highlight flicks, they wanna be
Hobbies turned to robberies, they killin' me

The gun didn't know I was loaded
Devil attempts to get heroes railroaded
Stole the ball from lost souls
For whom the final bell toles
Confused with Moses in street clothes
He suppose he the one with the corn rows
Blessed to do this outside J
Do you know the way to the ABA

One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son
One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son

Now one of these programmed cats
Just off the black, is where the shot clock at Don't back me if I come, with milky raps
Smack me if I rhyme on silky tracks
Takes a nation to get back
Mike, sometimes the opposite of watcha like
I'm tired of the taps within
Sometimes your brain's your cell prisons the skin you in

Gettin' change beyond the point blank range
Combined with the cross it's gettin' over strange

Here comes the son
But who's gonna stop the rain?

It's just begun and gets some done
Got to beat the man, it's the house, son

One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son
One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son

May I rise, may I rise to speak to this game
Ashamed that I invited this devil
To rise to a living level, speakin' to the kind of
Refined knowledge to define evil
I speak no evil, I hear no evil
I see no equal to this fellownated madness
Sad at this mess, sad at this mess, sad at this mess

One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son
One on one, it's just begun
Come to the house of the rising son

Just begun, just begun, just begun, just begun
