Wake up son of mine
Momma got somethin' to tell you
Changes come
Life will have it's way
With your pride, son
Take it like a man

Hang on son of mine
A storm is blowin' up your horizon

Changes come
Keep your dignity
Take the high road
Take it like a man

Listen up son of mine
Momma got somethin' to tell you
All about growing pains
Life will pound away
Where the light don't shine, son
Take it like a man

Suck it up son of mine
Thunder blowin' up your horizon

Changes come
Keep your dignity
Take the high road
Take it like a man

Momma said like the rain
(This too shall pass)
Like a kidney stone
(This too shall pass)
It's just a broken heart, son
This pain will pass away
