You're the moonshine
Your aura separates the night
So I can drive on in, drive into your life
But don't you worry, try not to hurry

But don't forget to smell the roses
The flowers that I got for you to mend the wound inside
In a distant place where I can run with you all night
You're like the moonshine

Moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Getting ready to figure it out

You're a moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out

Keep your composure, don't let nobody inside
The circle that remains tragic
Somehow ancient and less abusive to you
But you know how to get through everything

When there's problems surrounding
So many problems surrounding
I'm gonna mend a wound inside
In a distant place where I can run with you all night

You're the moonshine

Moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out

Moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out

Why we had to fall apart?
Why we had to fall apart?
Like the moonshine

Won't you worry
Won't you worry your life away

Moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out

Moonshine
Stepping in front of my skyline
Can I get a minute to figure it out

Got you in the palm of my hand
Got you in the palm of my hand
Got you in the palm of my hand
Got you in the palm of my

Do a dance
Do a dance
Do a dance

Got you in the palm of my hand
Got you in the palm of my hand
