As I sit here by my window
And I'm looking on the street
I see something so unpleasing
I'm wondering how could we let this be
Is it too late to save what we had
We can't ignore what's going on
If we put effort into something positive
We can make it better world to live in

As I sit here by my window
I'm seeing things I can't believe
Children killing for no reason
I wish this menace will disappear
Is it right that people to go hungry
We can't ignore what's going on
If we put effort into something positive
We can make it better world to live in

As I look outside my window
I see something I can't believe
And if I close my window
What will the future bring
I wanna know

As I lie here by my window
Children sleeping on the street
Mothers. fathers have no place to go
Where is the god when we need him so
Is it too late to save what we had
We can't ignore what's going on
If we put effort into something positive
We can make it better world to live in

As I look outside my window
I see something I can't believe
And if I close my window
What will the future bring?
As I look outside my window
I see something I can't believe
And if I close my window
What will the future bring?

I wanna know
What will the future bring?
Won't you listen to me?
Ooh
I wanna know
What will the future bring?
I wanna know
What will the future bring?
Won't you listen to me?
I'm seeing things I can't believe
I wanna know
What will the future bring?
