It's named after a fish but it looks like King Kong.
I got my rippin' stripped down 'Cuda roaring all night long.
It's cold air sniffing scoop is poking through the hood.
You can tell by the looks this car is up to no good.

Four speed overhaul when going for the bite.
Air grabbing monster pounding on all through the night.
Four wheels on the prow, your shortcut to the fun.
Made of Detroit steel, and the beat goes on.
And when the flag's been waved and the race is done
...
You know I'll be the one.

Speeding through the area, going ape all over town.
Going through the gears just to hear the sound.
Made for the hellraiser with a suicidal twist.
A quick push on the pedal is like being pounded by a fist.

Four speed overhaul when going for the bite.
Air grabbing monster pounding on all through the night.
Four wheels on the prow, your shortcut to the fun.
Made of Detroit steel, and the beat goes on.
And when the flag's been waved and the race is done
...
You know I'll be the one.
