I'm struggling with depression and an unruly dice.
Anything I do, just laughs me right back in the eyes.
I've raced for money, I've been dabbling with cards
I even tried to be a good guy but I got no rewards.

I burn into the future and I just can't stop.
I guess you can say I'm stuck
Cluster of bad luck, I just can't stop
I guess you can say I'm fucked.
Cluster of bad luck.

It's a union of misfortune, it's an oversized hex.
Burning all my bridges with the opposite sex.
If I put a lot of effort into winning a buck.
You know that I will bet it on deal that suck.

I burn into the future and I just can't stop.
I guess you can say I'm stuck
Cluster of bad luck, I just can't stop
I guess you can say I'm fucked.
Cluster of bad luck.

Ripping out the eightball and shaking it good.
Lucky me, there's smoke from under the hood.
I got my four-leaf clovers and my rabbit paws.
But I got my bad luck baby, I can't escape it's jaws.

I burn into the future and I just can't stop.
I guess you can say I'm stuck
Cluster of bad luck, I just can't stop
I guess you can say I'm fucked.
Cluster of bad luck. Yeah.
