You poked me and called me names.
I had loser written all over me and soiled Hanes.
But now I am the dealer and I've picked your card.
I will get you Carnalita, I will get my reward.

What comes around goes around, you must know â€¦
You get it back, it's a non-stop flow.
Now get on with the show â€¦
'cause evil come and evil go.

Now years have passed and you've forgot but I can't rest.
You're the one and only passenger on my horror express.
I've gone from the reciever to the one who pay back.
With new won strength I now have what I lacked.

What comes around goes around, you must know â€¦
You get it back, it's a non-stop flow.
Now get on with the show â€¦
'cause evil come and evil go.

You left me stained and halfway to hell.
Now you'll feel the pain that I know so well.
From bottle to bottle I've searched for my pride.
Yeah I have been patient now time's on my side.

You lied and you cheated and you cut out a hole.
Are you ready to pay for the years that you stole ?
Your two-timing body will be hit by my hate.
Unlike the other times I control this date.

What comes around goes around, you must know â€¦
You get it back, it's a non-stop flow.
Now get on with the show â€¦
'cause evil come and evil go.
