You can count on trouble, I'm gonna do my deeds.
I'm gonna take a bite from the hand that feeds.
Perhaps I'll pull the plug on all the stinking old.
I think it's payback time for all the lies they've told.

It's an all-out onslaught when it's going down.
I'm just cooler when it's getting hot.
So pave the way for a machine that runs.
You know I'm loaded, I'm mad and I'm out to spike your guns.

Put a buck on chaos but it won't pay off good.
Here's another blast upon your neighbourhood.
It's a sick sick world, I'm here to clean it up.
I throw a napalm party and I will be on top.

It's an all-out onslaught when it's going down.
I'm just cooler when it's getting hot.
So pave the way for a machine that runs.
You know I'm loaded, I'm mad and I'm out to spike your guns.

Yeah, I will show you mayhem in it's purest form.
And put a nail in the coffin of the common norm.
I will have caused some trouble before I go out.
So barricade your doors 'cause noone knows my route.

It's an all-out onslaught when it's going down.
I'm just cooler when it's getting hot.
So pave the way for a machine that runs.
You know I'm loaded, I'm mad and I'm out to spike your guns.
