I've been through hell but it froze over.
Think of a lowlife, I assure you I am lower.
I've cut my wrists and shot my feet.
I've been left to die on a Mexico street.

Been tied down to that chair.
But me they couldn't fry.
There's nothing I don't dare.
I'm too goddamn mean to die. Yeah.

I've taken blows and poisoned water.
Been stabbed in rage by the devils daughter.
I've done more shit than you could know.
Escaped the chair with a tilted halo.

Been tied down to that chair.
But me they couldn't fry.
There's nothing I don't dare.
I'm too goddamn mean to die.

I've laughed loud in outlaws faces.
Crashed and burned in dragstrip races.
Got the ability to always make a scene.
But they can't stop me I'm too damn mean.

Been tied down to that chair.
But me they couldn't fry.
There's nothing I don't dare.
I'm too goddamn mean to die.
