These thoughts of love don't dry out
Don't get distracted
Don't stop, it's a little pathetic
But I'll leave it with you
It's a rough road to freedom
Bringing back the past
Feels like a long story starting
Promise not to promise

Heart coming apart
Can't see the blur of tomorrow

Unknown road
Sometimes hidden
Sometimes there
I woke up naked
My ordinary life stopped

Body lets go
Lights flipping and melting

Things won't go as you wish
No matter how much you squirm, no
Youth is alright
Speeding nights on the run

Heart broken, the blue of tomorrow
Body lets go, light flips
