These thoughts of love don't cry out,
Don't get distracted
Don't stop: it's a little pathetic, but I'll leave it with you
It's a rough road to freedom, bringing back
The past
Feels like a long story starting, promise not to promise

Heart coming apart, can't see the blur of Tomorrow

Unknown road, sometimes hidden sometimes
There
I woke up naked, my ordinary life stopped

Body lets go, lights flipping and melting

Things won't go as you wish, no matter how Much you squirm, no!
Youth is all right, speeding nights on the run

Heart broken, the blur of tomorrow
Body lets go, lights flip
