the cherry blossoms bloom
a new wind blows
i had forgotten that i can be brave until i met you your soft hair streams in the wind i listen to your warm voice i tremble as tears fall the clouds that you have created are now clearing up love doesn't go as easy as some say so touch me and make sure instead of giving me your vague words

the cherry blossoms bloom
and bring the sweet sweet season we touch each other and understand you and me all the way
come to my house all the way more
come to my house
