You never hear just what we've done, you bend the truth to make it fun You're shaping society like a mould of how idealists' be We've tried to reason with your ways, called for help so many days
There's no point in changing cultural means, i don't know why i try

Like water off a ducks back, you just dont seem to care
Every time i turn around you're always standing there...
Traditions never changing you fail to understand
You know it's what we want, it's what we want.

Cut down from our hopes and dreams, we're held back from what we want to be Half of everything that we earn is taken right away Freedom truth susceptibility, droned down like a forest of trees
Never to grow back like they were, you're fore front's full of lies

Like water off a ducks back, you just dont seem to care
Every time i turn around you're always standing there...
Traditions never changing you fail to understand
You know it's what we want, it's what we want.

Although you're thinking the same and i'm not,
although you're thinking the same
Although you're thinking the same and i'm not...
I don't know what to say
