(feat. Stephen Marley)

[Chorus: Stephen Marley]

From Jungle to Rema
From Tivoli to Matthews Lane
From Waterhouse to Drewsland
From Payneland to Delacree

[Verse 1: Damian Marley]

A youth and youth fi have a plan and have some ambition
And make sure unnu firm ina di Armageddon So when you son become a man, him know just where you stand
Him know him Puppa set it so him follow tradition
If Marcus Garvey say fi read then why some man ah pree
Cause knowledge ah the key and it will set the people free
And Haile I philosophy is African unity
Unno watch di segregation and social impurity
The race is not just for the swift but those who can endure
Make sure you have a steady footing in ah zion door
And keep dem thoughts dem pure, Jah love is for the poor
But some likkkle bwoy ah burst some gun dem Mumma can't afford
If Jah say blood fi run let Jah will be done
The heaven and the earth will pass away before him word no come
But if it rise without a cause there will be no reward
For you to enter Zion gates because you are a fraud

[Chorus:]

For the youths in the struggle
Fighting Guerilla warfare
Somalia to Ethiopia
From Egypt to Zimbabwe

[Verse 2:]

Haile Selassie say ah war if colour is a scar
If one from every nation can come live up an ah par
So don't care who you are there's a brighter morning star
It's shining wake di town and tell the people near and far
You seek and you will search with science and research
The flesh it is the temple and the temple is the church
Haile Selassie say fi work so how some man ah lurks Dem fix upon the cornerside like rubbish heap and dirt Haile Selassie say ah one respect for every man
No care di race, no care di colour nor di religion
So make a decision fi bun di division
Cause each and every rasta youth to trot pon di mission

[Chorus:]

From Portmore to Kingston
From Kingston to Montego Bay
From Seaview to Riverton
Common, Hundred, Park Lanes

From Jungle to Rema
From Tivoli to Matthews Lane
From Southside to Telaville
From Iraq to USA

From Waterhouse to Drewsland
Payneland to Delacree
