Nadadum dadadada dada da...
Take me down to the river where I would not go before Through the trees and the rushes to a place we both know
And I'm feeling much younger as I kneel on the ground Dip my toe in the water of the river where I watched you drown Nadadum nananana nana na...
Oh when the river ran dry that next year
I could not find your body Now I'm standing here ready at last to dive down and reach you again
And I long to be with you Now these cold nights have come oh I go down to the river
But the river will stop for no-one Though I ask it it keeps flowing on When I ask it, it tells me you're gone Dadow...
