"Happy Endings"

Oh yeah, imagine it is a film and you're the star
And pretty soon we're coming to the part
Where you realize that you should give your heart
Oh, give your heart to me

And now the orchestra begins to make a sound
That goes round and round and round
Round and round and round and round, umm, round and round again
We kiss to violins

Well some sad people might believe in that I guess
But we know better don't we?
We know all about the mess
The aftermath of our affair is lyin' all around, I can't clear it away
No

And do you think that it's so easy to find
Somebody who is just your kind?
Well it might take you a little time
But I'm goin' to have to try, oh yeah, I'm goin' to try

And I know no one can ever know which way to head
But don't you remember that you once said
That you liked happy endings?
Happy endings

And no one can ever know if it's goin' to work
But if you try
If you try
Then you might get your happy ending

Ba ba da da ba ba
Ba ba ba ba
Ba ba ba ba

And I know no one can ever know which way to head
Don't you remember that you once said
That you liked happy endings?
Happy endings

And no one can ever know if it's goin' to work
And if you try, if you try
Then you might get your happy ending
Your ending, the thing that you deserve

And I know no one can ever know which way to head
But don't you remember you once said
You liked happy endings?
