"The Babysitter"

Visit "The Babysitter" on MotoLyrics.com

Susan's babysitter is seventeen years old
Oh, she looks like Susan when she still lived at home
She's a lovely girl, she's got long black hair
If you go home now she might still be there

Susan's babysitter is twenty one years old
She still looks like Susan when Susan was not at home
She's a lovely girl, she's got long blond hair
If you go home now she will not be there

'Cause she left last June, she came home too soon
You were both upstairs in your daughter's room
She's a lovely girl
