We are criminal
Never turning back
We are criminal
We won't lose your track
We are born to beam
A nuclear way thru steam
We are the slackers at the age of dream
We got no counterpower,
We got no self-esteem

We are criminal

We are criminal

Welcome to the feast
We are criminal
We unleash the beast
We are born to break
The stiffness of your neck
We are the slackers at the end of times
We got no inhibitions,
We cross over the lines

We are criminal
