There's a hundred of me
And they're all screaming
There's a thousand of me
And they're all scheming

There's a hundred of me
And they're all lying
There's a thousand of me
And they're not trying

I cut myself just to watch it bleeding
I hurt myself and i let it show
Shot myself just to watch you grieving
I'll never let go

It's the same mistake
We get hurt but we're up again
Took too much
But it dulls the pain
Get me back to your world
I could stay awake
We get hurt to be up again
I could break
But it helps the pain
Get me back to your world

There's a hundred of me
And they're all leaving
There's a thousand of me
And they're not breathing
There's a hundred of me
And they're all dying
There's a thousand of me
And they're all flying

You know i will but you cannot make me
You should not wait for the girl you know
Back down till you learn to hate me
It's starting to show

It's the same mistake
We get hurt but we're up again

Took too much
But it dulls the pain
Get me back to your world
I could stay awake
We get hurt to be up again
I could break
But it helps the pain
Get me back to your world

I'm not saying nothing
Think i'll start a fight
You'll come up with something
I think should prove me right
I'm not saying nothing
What's said is said, it's said

It's the same mistake
Took too much
I could stay awake
