It was the last time I knew you would leave it
Face like a fight to cut in the rain
Ghost all around you I knew they would win it
When will they be back again
Read the words as I breathe on the mirror
Someone stop me, please

It's not over yet, I won't forget
Everything
So don't say a word, it's going to hurt
Everything

Where have you been hiding
I want you to know what you mean to me
Why do you deny me
Oh, go to hell in the end
Read the words as I breathe on the mirror
Someone stop me, please

It's not over yet, I won't forget
Everything
So don't say a word, it's going to hurt
Everything
I can't tell you now, someday you'll know
Everything

It's not over yet, I won't forget
Everything
So don't say a word, it's going to hurt
Everything
It's not over yet, I won't forget
Everything
So don't say a word, it's going to hurt
Everything
I can't tell you now, someday you'll know
Everything
I can't tell you now, someday you'll know
Everything
