I was singing
On the inside
Even now
And you still don't get it

I could see you on the inside
Even now
Would you like to forget it

I was screaming underwater
"All our live should end"

All played a part
Closed the door
And my silence
All that traitors are
I'm a slut, you're a kid

I was biting at my fingers
'Til they bled
But I'm still not ready
Could you help me take the skin off
With your teeth and nails

All played a part
Closed the doors
And my silence
All traitors are
I'm a slut, you're a kid

You can't watch again
Cause you broke your camera
Thrown into the sea

You can't watch again
Cause you broke your camera
Thrown into the sea
