That old John Deere tractor been putting around those pastures
On Grandpa's farm long before I was here
This rusty F-150 still purrs like a kitten
She just shakes a bit over 60 in high gear Hands of time ain't got the strength to rip up what he has
Just like his love for God and Grandma, built to last

Strong as steel, tough as leather
Come Hell or high water weather
It's gonna take two forevers to beat what they have
It's deeper than the ocean bottom
Like that diamond he once bought her
Still shining on her hand, built to last

This guitar is a classic, once was my daddy's daddy's
Now it helps me make my living day to day
This tattoo on my shoulder will be there when I'm older
And I'll wear this cross on my neck to my grave Hands of time ain't got the strength to rip up what I have
Girl my love for you is like that, built to last

Strong as steel, tough as leather
Come Hell or high water weather
It's gonna take two forevers to beat what we have
It's deeper than the ocean bottom
Like that diamond that I bought you
Still shining on your hand, built to last

Strong as steel, tough as leather
Come Hell or high water weather
It's gonna take two forevers to beat what we have
It's deeper than the ocean bottom
Like that diamond that I bought you
Still shining on your hand, built to last

Strong as steel, tough as leather
Come Hell or high water weather
It's gonna take two forevers to beat what we have
It's deeper than the ocean bottom

Like that diamond that I bought you
Still shining on your hand, built to last
