If love made a sound
It would sound
Just like you laughing
Out loud

If love could feel
It would feel
Just like your soft skin
Against mine

Until you
Love was just a mystery
Now in my heart
I know what it is to me

It's rolled up in a blanket on a Sunday morning
Soft sweet kisses without any warning
Lip-stick on my coffee cup
It's a walk on the shore with the sunset dippin'
You and me together on the back porch sippin'
Blackberry wine
Holding you here in my arms like this
I know what love is

If love was a tear
It would be here on my cheek
whenever you're away

If love had wings
There could never be a distance
To keep us apart

And if love had a face to look into
That I can see, feel and touch
Baby, it's you

All rolled up in a blanket on a Sunday morning
Soft sweet kisses without any warning
Lip-stick on my coffee cup
It's a night by the fire
With your head on my shoulder
Talkin' bout dreams and growin' older

Just getting better with time
With your hand against my heart like this
I know what love is

Whooooa
A night by the fire with your head on my shoulder
Talkin' bout dreams and growin' older
With your hand against my heart like this
I know what love is

I know what love is
