I need some headroom
I need some space to breathe
You're cramping my style
Won't you roll over please Something has fallen and it feels so hard to get to Wool around my eyes
You try to tell me that I don't know how to love you
But you're down so low
I'm miles above you
Now I don't care what it's going to move you Because where you are now
All I do is use you
I need some headroom

I need some headroom
You've got to let me be
I don't know how I ever thought you could be good for me
Won't be no second chance don't need to think things over
Now my choice is clear...yeah
Too many days we've wasted breathing stormy weather
And it's always cold
When we're together
Now I don't care what it's going to move you
'cause right now, all I do is use you
I need some headroom

I need some headroom...headroom headroom
headroom

I need some headroom
This pressure's killing me
So rand and file, you cramp my style, I want to move over please
You give me so much that it feels like this is Christmas
But I'm grown up now...yeah-eh
You know I see I see the why beyond the land and why the under man spells many Now I don't care what it's gonna take to move you

'Cause right now, all I do is use you
I need some headroom

I need some headroom...headroom headroom
I need some headroom
