

Purified In Blood "Endless Evil"

Visit "Endless Evil" on MotoLyrics.com

Demons dwelling in the depths of consciousness
Ready to strike my inner weakness
Seizing the chance to exploit temptations
Campaign of elimination drains my strength

Mislead into darkness- actions controlled
Mind and body slowly decay
Unable to separate right from wrong

Serpent lies embrace my thoughts
Mind tortured with inner chaos
Scarred by endless evil

Once again I stand alone to face the demons

Separate reality from fiction- ensemble the truth
Annihilate the weakness- the captor of sanity
