(Sit around and I won't see you anymore)
Sit around and I won't see you anymore
What's the sound if you remember don't be like before
I can tell you life's vile what is it that you can tell me
Fondling as you're thinking to get me is what I want
Somebody make them take away this thing
And never bring it back
It's easy to see what it does and what it does to me
I don't want to be ignored all I want to do is live my life
Sitting in a back seat thinking it would be all right
I can't seem to find a way I was never right
But you wanted everything the same
I am no longer ashamed to care for what I want
