(Ladies)

Now, if your dude ain't acting right
You tell that dude he got to go
If that dude be claiming that he broke
You tell that dude he got to go

If he want you to stay in the house everyday and night
Tell him he got to go
If he wanna run the streets then you run the streets too
And you tell him he got to go

Baby, baby, somebody's gonna cry tonight
Baby, baby, but it will be my tears tonight
So watcha think about that? Watcha think about it?
Watcha think about that, that, that, oh baby?

Tonight, we gon' switch up
I'll do you you do me
Tonight, you gon' stay home
While I'm running the street

What do you? What do you?
What do you? What do you think about that baby?
What do you? What do you?
What do you? What do you think about that baby?

I'ma let you play my cards
So you can fill up looking hard
When that bitch has falled
Soon as you called so I can see her

Baby, baby, somebody's gonna cry tonight
Baby, baby, but it will be my tears tonight
So watcha think about that? Watcha think about it?
Watcha think about that, that, that, oh baby?

Tonight you gon' call me
A thousand times
Tonight I'm gon' make up
A thousand lies

How do you? How do you?

How do you? How do you feel about that, baby?
How do you? How do you?
How do you? How do you feel about that, baby?

I'ma let you play my cards
So you can fill up looking hard
When that bitch has falled
Soon as you called so I can see her

Baby, baby, somebody's gonna cry tonight
Baby, baby, but it will be my tears tonight
So watcha think about that? Watcha think about it?
Watcha think about that, that, that, oh baby?

Okay, hold up, watchu think about that?
You wear the dress and I put on your slacks
Tonight, I'm going out and ain't coming back
You ain't get no more pussycat

See me in the club I'm out with my girls
Do like you do when you out with them dudes
Up in the club it's just me and my girls
Play like Katy Perry kissing on girls

Now, you can't eat or sleep and now
You in the house thinking 'bout me and now
I do what you do and me and now
I love to see you, baby

Baby, baby, somebody's gonna cry tonight
Baby, baby, but it will be my tears tonight
So watcha think about that? Watcha think about it?
Watcha think about that, that, that, oh baby?

Now, if your dude ain't acting right
You tell that dude he got to go
If that dude be claiming that he broke
You tell that dude he got to go

If he want you to stay in the house everyday and night
Tell him he got to go
If he wanna run the streets then you run the streets too
And you tell him he got to go

Baby, baby, oh baby, somebody's gonna cry tonight
Somebody's gonna cry tonight baby
