Put's Lyrics

TRY ME

[Hook]

Try me try me try me
(Repeat as needed)

[Verse one]

Sitting at home all alone
Staring at your Blackberry or is it iPhone
Hoping that he call before it be too long
You start to get worried something must be wrong
Your phone finally rings but itâ€™s your best friend
Say she want to tell you something
Say she don't mean to cause your mind no harm
See your man with another woman on his arm

[Chorus]

When you're in love
You think they're the only one
So let me take you out
So I can have some fun
I know he's your baby's dad
But you don't have to be so sad
Try Me

[Hook]

Try me try me try me
(Repeat as needed)

[Verse two]

You want to see it work for the child's sake
Dad won't buy his own child a birthday cake
Hurt you so bad all you do is lie awake
Tell me how much more girl you're gonna take?
I'm there for you and the child too
You can depend on me what you gonna do?
Remember the call from your best friend
When she said she had to tell you something

[Chorus]

When you're in love
You think they're the only one
But let me take you out
So you can have some fun
See I know he's your baby's dad
Let me give you something to make you glad
Try Me

[Rap]

Hey girl what you crying for?
I'm here to give you so much more
So dry your eyes and stop feeling so low
You hear me knocking girl open up the door
I'm not going to rush you lma give you time
Don't take too long to make up your mind
Don't listen to the things that he got to say
He's only trying to make you drive me away
So you won't
Try Me

[Hook]

Try me try me try me
(Repeat as needed)

[Chorus]

When you're in love
You think they're the only one
So let me take you out
It's time you had some fun
I know he's your baby's dad
Let me give you something you never had
Try Me
