Flashing like lightning, I can't believe it
My eyes won't fail me, see I'm not loaded
Time rolled swiftly, and I keep rockin rollin
Forget to open my eyes on a bright modern girl.

Manila girl, manila girl
Manila girl, manila girl
No walls gonna block you
Nobody's gonna stop you
Your feet is movin steady
I dare you follow me.

I followed all rainbows, it took me all directions
I found me no gold but for a pearl I'm stone cold
Wind keeps on touching, engine keeps on rollin
Sideways, frontways, what's your name anyway?
