Baby, your love it surrounds me but never gives me half a chance
I need a little heart infection 'cause love needs a little romance
And we'll never ever make it if you're pushin' me
You gotta back up baby or I might leave You gotta show me, hold me and let love breathe tonight

Give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love and I'll be yours tonight
I'll be yours

Baby you want some kind of promise? Well nothin' is forever these days
Lovers come and go, friends bought and sold, everything blows away
You know everything's changing baby overnight
You gotta hold on to love but not too tight
You gotta see it, see it, it's not how long but how right

Give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love and I'll be yours tonight
I'll be yours

Just tell me that love is right and look me in the eye I've gotta know your heart tonight before I give away a piece of my life

Oh give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Oh give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love, oh baby
Give me the right kind of love
Give me the right kind of love baby

Give me the right kind of love
