For i am the way
Burn all effigies of clay
Walk on water today
For i am the way
For i am the way
Today i turn my blood to sweetest wine
A holy sign imbued with the divine
Today's the day the gods walk out on me
The great divide is crossed for you by me
For i am the way
Burn all effigies of clay
Walk on water today
For i am the way
For i am the way
Today the silent one does have her say
Today all contradictions seemed ok
Today's the day that i become the sky
A silent understanding, my, oh my..
For i am the way
Burn all effigies of clay
Walk on water today
For i am the way
For i am the way
Today, for once, i'm not the last to learn
Today the only bridge i have, i burn
Today's the day the gods walk out on me
The great divide is crossed for you by me
For i am the way
For i am the way
For i am the way
For i am the way.
