It's getting hard to pay attention to you
Always trying to work it out
But a girl you love behind still hangs around
She's always wondering when you'll come back

The fact is you
(Are not)
You will never at all
The fact is
(Are not)

It's getting hard to pay attention now
But a girl you love behind still comes around
She's always asking, "When will he return?"
I can give her no answer

The fact is you
(Are not)
You will never at all
The fact is
(Are not)
You will never at all
