The hunger inside given to me makes me what I am Always it is calling me, for the blood of man
They say I cannot be this I am jaded
Hiding from the day
I can't bear I cannot tame the hunger in me

Oh
I say I did and always searching
You can't fuck with fate
So, instead you'll taste my pain

The hunger inside given to me makes me feel alive
Always out stalking prey
In the dark I hide
Feeling, Falling, Hating, Feel like, I am fading, hating LIFE!

They say I cannot be this I am jaded
Hiding from the day
I can't bear I cannot tame the hunger in me

Oh
I say I did and always searching
You can't fuck with fate
So, instead you'll taste my pain

You say your life I'm taking Always bothering me
I can't take this anymore
I'm failing, always smothering me
You look down on me
Hey
What you see, take this gift from me
You will soon feed from me!

Nothing seems exciting, always the same hiding, hiding

It's haunting me (x5)
