Obsessions are speaking for directions
Collapse the knees
Candid corrections make a splended story
Waiting for everything's progression
Expecting so the bridges
Fall beneath the fragile man who's letting go
A: follow B:
Listen well
Can the prahna seem or feel like...
Pause
Imagine air velocity
Feels just like it always does
With the bottle between the findings left to us
Obsessions are speaking for directions
Collapse the knees
Candid corrections make a splended story
Waiting for everything's progression
Expecting so the bridges
Fall beneath the fragile man who's letting go
I stand caught in this very moment
Let's call it in the air
Obsessions are bleeding our affections
Continuously killing impulses aimed to love and live
Obsessions our brilliant disaffections
Spends us as we work like drones
