I've created sins upon myself
Falter for being submissive
To them i become reverend
Regardless of what they have to say
They are the people who's Frantic of inflicting pain

Come with me
For i see
Visions of tomorrow

Silence resonates within my desolation
Yet i'm nearly deaf caused
By my loud voices inside myself
Can't relate to any world except mine
My island of regrets, my misery

Crawl inside
Call his name
Visions of tomorrow
Living with my convictions

Take me back set me free from my fears
Set me free from my suffering
Everything will turn black, burned,
Oblivious cage for the demented
Lord...have found you
Succulent to taste

Take me back set me free from my fears
Set me free from my suffering
Everything will turn black, burned,
Oblivious cage for the demented
You have no right to destroy my world
You have no right to destroy...
Lord...have found you
Succulent to taste
