We've got the right to run away
And burn this city down
We never thought that we would pay
But we run this in the ground

We see problems
We just won't tell where
They keep us up all night
(They keep us up all night)

We focused all our hearts on one (Our hearts as one)
We will not sleep until we're done
We fight our enemies with hate
That's why we pray
To take our hatred away

We act like everything is fine
Well we know that everything is not
We act like we will heal in time
And we can't if we keep falling down

We've been focused
Only on this one thing
We will try to fight
(We will try to fight)

[Chorus]

Come take this hatred away
We act like everything is fine
Well we know that everything is not
We act like we will heal in time
But we will

[Chorus]
