We start the fire
But we never put it out alone

And I thought that weÂ'd passed through the flames
And I thought that weÂ'd done everything
For us to come out on top
But IÂ'm stupid if I will ever think
That you were ever good to me
Because youÂ're not (youÂ're not)

I thought weÂ'd been through the fire
But weÂ'd still stick together
But never thought that you would leave
Now I can see your flame
It burns with bad intention

When I thought that we had open minds
And I thought that we had open hearts
But weÂ've been torn apart
And it seems like youÂ've let him in your mind
But I wonÂ't go down without a fight
Because itÂ's right (itÂ's right)

[Chorus 2x]

I thought weÂ'd been through the fire
I thought weÂ'd been through the fire

We start the fire
