[Verse 1]

I've hid my face for way too long
Have I proved anything at all?
'Cause everytime I'm up
You try to throw me down
I've let this go for way too long
And I'm still trying to prove you wrong
If you don't get that then you probably never will

[4x]

When it ends you'll be dead to my eyes

[Chorus]

I've tried to understand you
But all reason seems to fade
What makes you think I care?
I am the one who put up with you
When you needed me
I guess that means nothing to you

[Verse 2]

You look at life like it's a joke
In time you'll really understand
You'll never prosper
With the way you treat yourself
Open your eyes you pessimist
I've prayed a thousand prayers for you
To hear this message

That I'm trying to get through

[4x]

When it ends you'll be dead to my eyes

[Chorus]

[4x]

When it ends you'll be dead to my eyes
I remember times that I thought
That this would never end
That we would never end
Have I proved anything at all?
'Cause I'm still trying to prove you wrong
I'm sick of running in circles
You're making my heart bleed

[Chorus]
