When you speak to me
Do you not speak to her?
I see so clearly but she doesn't see at all
Reveal your face
Your loving grace

I want some proof that you're watching over
All of us
Not me
'Cause I cannot understand
Why we
Stumble and we fall so many times
But you still accept us
For who we are

[Chorus 2x]
She waits with baited breath for you
(For who we are)
(For who we are)
(For who we are)
(For who we are)

When you're holding me up
Are you letting her fall?
You speak so clearly but she doesn't hear at all
Show yourself
Please don't go

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]

[Repeats until fades]
For who we are
For who we are
For who we are
For who we are
