Loving you came easily Yet it made me blind to all there was to see Now my heart is filled with pain You understand I never will How did it come to be that you don't love me still? Now it's getting to be plain *If you really cared about anyone else I know you wouldn't hurt me If you cared about more than yourself I bet ya wouldn't go If you really cared about anyone else I know you wouldn't hurt me If you cared about more than yourself I bet ya wouldn't nurt me If you cared about more than yourself

You wouldn't walk out the door Though some days the blues was our parade Still we marched through all the tears we made Now I find that it wasn't no game of charades that you played I did my best to bring you joy How can you just leave me like a broken toy? Where's the man that once was you? If I could be within your mind I would never think to treat you this unkind The pain you caused will come to you
