I don't care if people stare i burn thier fucking eyes and its ok the things they say i know there fucking lies cycle boots, and leopard skin studs n spikes and safety pins stick up their nose dont like my clothes their just fucking whores i got a use for steel toed boots kick down you fucking doors style like, razor blades style like broken glass well if you can't handle that kiss my fucking ass got the pride down deep inside to show some fucking balls and i dont care if people stare their fucking barbie dolls
