From beyond this bed of mine, I see
Ceiling fans with you on top of me
And the window blinds are filled with rays of sun
And all your secret fantasies, thy will be done, done

And inside of your walls there will dwell a Capricorn
That will feast your body all night
And if keep this up then our love child will be born
All because of the greatest

The greatest you, the greatest me
We have found, the greatest chemistry
The greatest touch, the greatest kiss
What came to be, is the greatest wish

The greatest show, the greatest song
The greatest words, the greatest all night long
Baby your love stays constantly on my mind
This is the best sex I've ever had

I know twelve ways to make your love come down
And the secret places on you will be found
Like a voyage when the storm begins to roar
There's no telling what this night could have in store, store

'Cause inside of your walls there will dwell a Capricorn
That will feast your body all night
And if we keep this up then our love child will be born
All because of the greatest

The greatest you, the greatest me
We have found, the greatest chemistry
The greatest touch, the greatest kiss
What came to be, is the greatest wish

The greatest show, the greatest song
The greatest words, the greatest all night long
Baby your love stays constantly on my mind
This is the best sex I've ever had

The greatest you, the greatest me

We have found, the greatest chemistry
The greatest touch, the greatest kiss
What came to be, is the greatest wish

The greatest show, the greatest song
The greatest words, the greatest all night long
Baby your love stays constantly on my mind
It's the greatest sex I ever had, yeah, yeah

The greatest you, the greatest me
We have found, the greatest chemistry
The greatest touch, the greatest kiss
What came to be, is the greatest wish

The greatest show, the greatest song
The greatest words, the greatest all night long
Baby your love stays constantly on my mind
This sex's so good, I've got to break it down
