I decided to stay home tonight
I decided I'm a treat you right
I decided to be there for you
Decided to be on my P's and Q's
I decided to give up my friends
Decided I'm a take you out weekends
Decided to give you a reason to trust
These are decisions that I made for love

Enough is enough, no more runnin' around
Searchin' for what's right here at home
Because my luck is 'bout to turn around
And I just can't keep doing you wrong
Girl, I take it for granted that you will be here always
Tired of this ego trip
'Cause soon you'll be searchin' for another man
And I just can't have that happen to me

I decided to stay home tonight
I decided I'm a treat you right
I decided to be there for you
Decided to be on my P's and Q's
I decided to give up my friends
Decided I'm a take you out weekends
Decided to give you a reason to trust
These are decisions that I made for love

Now I've had about all that I can stand no more
Turnin' in my player's card
See, I'm retiring from the secret life I chose
'Cause I just can't keep breakin' your heart
It was silly of me to be the way that I was
First was blind but now I see
Baby, soon you'll be sayin' you're fallin' out of love
And I just can't let it happen, whoa I

I decided to stay home tonight
I decided I'm a treat you right
I decided to be there for you
Decided to be on my P's and Q's
I decided to give up my friends
Decided I'm a take you out weekends

Decided to give you a reason to trust
These are decisions that I made for love

When the mornin' comes you'll see
The sun will shine on you and me
Was on my way to losing you until I found reality
So cast away, your doubts and fears
'Cause from now on I'll be right here
For always, forever more I decided

I decided to stay home tonight
I decided I'm a treat you right
I decided to be there for you
Decided to be on my P's and Q's
I decided to give up my friends
Decided I'm a take you out weekends
Decided to give you a reason to trust
These are decisions that I made for love

I decided to stay home tonight
I decided I'm a treat you right
I decided to be there for you
Decided to be on my P's and Q's
I decided to give up my friends
Decided I'm a take you out weekends
Decided to give you a reason to trust
These are decisions that I made for love
