I mean everybody say, what if?
What if I could fly? What if man could fly for real?
Wouldn't that be somethin'?
Man I would surely touch the sky if I could just fly
You know we have our dreams
We always say, what if, what if this, what if that What if you and me were together? What if?
Forever! I mean eternity for real! What if?

If yeah, baby

Listen, if I were a painter baby, I'd paint a picture of us Somewhere on a private island makin' love, yeah
Now if I were a pirate baby I'd discover, yeah
You for me 'cause girl you are a treasure, yeah

If I was a dream baby here's what I'd do Allow every good dream you dream to come true, yeah
If I were a promise baby, then you could bet, yeah
That every promise made to you girl will be kept, yes, it would

If I was a magician baby then you'd have no fear 'Cause I'd snap my fingers and make your worries disappear
If I were

If I were all these things then girl to you I'd give all these things
Fly you straight to Heaven and step with you while the angels sing
I'd ask you to marry me, give you the sun for a diamond ring
If I could, I'd do those things

Now, if I were a preacher baby, my sermon would be About how God opened up Heaven and rained you on me, yeah
If I was a doctor baby I surely would Give you somethin' for your pain that'll make you feel real good

Now, if I were a psychic baby then our love would last 'Cause I'd go into the future and prevent All break ups from comin' to pass

Lord, if I were feeling down baby and really goin' through All friends are gone then I know That I can count on you

One more, if we were at a club baby and this jam came on I'd grab you by the hand and tell you let's step to this song
If I were

If I were all these things then girl to you I'd give all
these things
Fly you straight to Heaven and step with you while the
angels sing
I'd ask you to marry me, give you the sun for a
diamond ring
Baby if I could I'd do those things

If I could blink my eye and be a giant eagle in the sky Girl, I would swoop down and fly you straight into the sun Ohh if I could pick a number out of every number girl you'd be My number one

If I were all these things then girl to you I'd give all
these things
Fly you straight to Heaven and step with you while the
angels sing
I'd ask you to marry me, give you the sun for a
diamond ring
If I could I'd do those things

If I were all these things then girl to you I'd give all
these things
Fly you straight to Heaven and step with you while the
angels sing
I'd ask you to marry me, give you the sun for a
diamond ring
If I could I'd do those things

If I were all these things then girl to you I'd give all
these things
Fly you straight to Heaven and step with you while the
angels sing
I'd ask you to marry me, give you the sun for a

diamond ring
If I could I'd do those things
