I know,
I've read all the articles seen all the photographs pictures of you and me in the magazines.
I did all the interviews and not once did I mention you at the billboards, walk right by you I didn't wanna make a scean

Because we agreed to keep it on the (HUSH) don't want everybody knowing about (US) and I vowel that forever I'll keep my word baby but I'm telling you know this secret is drivin me crazy

And I'm tired of creepin around with YOU
Girl i wanna be with YOU
Tell me what the hell are we gunna do

Im like oh ooh oh oohh

baby, we cant let the industry know because our cover will be blown
If anybody hears or so happens to see,
girl you got your career and i got family

and girl thats why
we cant let the industry know
because our cover will be blown

dont want it to be blown gotta keep it on the low

Nobody, nobody, nobody, nobdy girl we cant let the indusrty know bet you wanna know who im talkin bout bet you wanna know who im thinkin bout wait, said you'd be my shelter in the midst fo stormy weather

texts of you tellin me you want my ??????

girl i just dont know what to do anymore
you and me on the QT its killin me slow and even though im a litter younger than you it's okay and I'm starting to feel that if people found out its okay but then i see you up in the Slums with nothing on, up in a video i was so pissed that i jumped right up and went straight to the studio

Because we agreed to keep it on the (HUSH)

Tell me what the hell are we gunna do

Im like oh ooh oh oohh

oh baby, we cant let the industry know
because our cover will be blown
girl you got your career and i got family

girl we cant let the indusrty

(sshh ssh sshh sshh)
we have to be careful if we dont want nobody to get hurt we have to keep it privet girl this relationship to ourselves though I agree girl its killing me

why do we have to hide from the indusrty and baby girl im tired of sneakin and creepin with one another everyday it gets harder for me being you secret lover

because our cover will be blown
girl you got your career and i got family

girl we cant let the industrty know
