Last night you called, I could have talked forever Haven't heard your voice in so long, it's been so hard living without you
I have to be strong, but I found an island in your heart
A place where we might start
To live a life together forever

Chorus:

I would climb any old mountain
I would cross any old river
To be in your arms
I'll do anything

Who would have thought things would come between us
You went your way and I went mine
I guess sometimes we start believing
There's so much more to find
But I found this island in your heart
A place where we might start
To live a life together forever

(Chorus 2x)

oooooooooooooooooh ohhohh!!!!

But I found this island in your heart
A place where we might start
To live a life together forever

(chorus 3x)
